

A Purr & Wag of the Tail to

All who donate items from our wish list for the animals.

Our new Small Animal Ambassadors who are busy keeping our critters entertained and engaged.

All the kids who celebrated their birthdays at TCHS, including Emerson, 7; Grace, 10; Shanelle, 8; Ronni, 7; Caiden, 6; Maeson, 6; Nora, 11; Ava, 5; Avery, 10; and Sydney, 8.

Cash Wise East and Sauk Rapids Coborn's for hosting brat sales to benefit TCHS, and thank you to all the volunteers who worked during the busy sales!

Good Earth Co-Op for inviting us to participate in the International Day of the Co-op, and to our volunteers Vickie, Kyle and their dog, Lucky, for representing TCHS there.

The Paper Collector for inviting us to be their guest for the June Downtown St. Cloud Art Crawl, and to everyone who made paw print art to benefit Tri-County Humane Society. Also thank you to the TCHS volunteers who were present: Michele Hartmann and her dog, Clifford; Mason Leider; and Erin Bloch and her dog, Marley.

Clearview and Madison Kidstops for organizing kitten visits with their children.

Miles Psychological Services, LLC for making TCHS their May Charity Challenge.

Crafts Direct for making TCHS their Charity of the Week in May!

Employees of Bluestem Brands for selecting TCHS as one of their designated charities for June campaigns!

Employees of St. Cloud HRA for hosting a TCHS fundraiser.

The students at Roylton Elementary for having a coin drive to support the animals.

St. Cloud Rox for hosting Bark in the Park, which in part benefits Tri-County Humane Society. Bark in the Park is the only game of the year in which fans are allowed to bring their pups! Also thanks to our volunteers Rachel, Gina, and Taylor for helping out during the event!

The volunteers (both human and dog) who are attending Summertime by George! this season.
