

A Purr & Wag of the Tail to ...

Lake Wobegon Trail Marathon volunteer Meghan Swendra for choosing TCHS to receive her $100 donation.

The following businesses/employees for fundraising on TCHS' behalf and/or donating to TCHS: Target East, Walmart St. Cloud, Walmart Sartell, Menards, PetSmart, Good Earth Food Co-Op, Waite Park Fleet Farm, Rasmussen University's Nursing Club, Sauk Rapids Municipal Liquor/Viking Coca-Cola, Crafts Direct, Beaver Island Brewing, Bluestem Brands, and Miller Welle Heiser.

Jen Kubat Steinkopf for donating her $1,000 Leighton Broadcasting Advertising prize for winning the Mural Contest. Jen designed a beautiful butterfly mural that is on display on the backside of Leighton's building downtown.

Darin Dorholt for donating a variety of 53 glass beer steins, shot glasses, and coffee mugs

Coborn's, Inc for its very generous $10,000 donation during its 100th anniversary celebration at a Summer-time by George! event.

*Photo courtesy of the Rox
The St. Cloud Rox and Granite City Pet Hospital once again hosted Bark in the Park.*

Our lemonade stand fundraisers and donations: Brynn, Wes, Gabby, Ainsley, Liam, Tommy, Evan, and the Hilsgen-Braun families for fundraising on our behalf! These kids raised almost $300! Wow — that's a lot of lemonade!

Facebook donors for organizing and participating in fundraising events! Altogether, they raised more than $1,600 for the animals!

Re-Tail Revisited patrons for donating items for us to sell as well as those who shopped at the thrift store. In May and June, $1,975 was raised!

Photo courtesy of St. Cloud Rotary

Tri-County Humane Society Executive Director Vicki Davis (center) accepts the $10,000 check from Coborn's during a recent Summertime by George! event.

Sauk Rapids-Rice High School Art Club for taking the time and effort to create a playful "Dog Toy" mural. (See photo at right.)

St. Cloud Rox and Granite City Pet Hospital for hosting the Bark in the Park fundraiser on behalf of TCHS.

Rice Elementary students who sold coffee to teachers for donations to our shelter — what a great idea!

Everyone who drops change into TCHS coin banks in businesses around Central Minnesota. (And thank you to all the businesses that host them.)